

Weekly Intelligencer.

The street railroad is being repaired.

The new mines at Wellington are prospecting.

There was quite a dash of rain Tuesday morning.

Plenty of rain is hard on the wheat, but there isn't a tear shed by the growing corn.

Old claims to have disposed of nearly half the time binders sold in this county this season.

The rank of Ensign was conferred upon Page Charles Jackson at Monday night's meeting of Lexington lodge Knights of Pythias.

Frank Limberg, sent to the penitentiary for manslaughter, has been granted a pardon by the governor. He was convicted in 1889.

Mrs. Mitchell's boarding house at Sedalia, burned Thursday morning, about 2 o'clock, and some of the boarders had narrow escapes.

Tom Howard, one of the Higginsville gamblers, had his trial continued until the 18th, in Justice Hagland's court, at Higginsville.

In Justice Cook's court at Aulville, Monday, Charles Grant, colored, pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons, and was fined $50 and costs.

A citizen suggests, from the number of offenders brought to the jail here lately, that a term of the criminal court be held at least once a month.

Col. W. B. Riley, proprietor of Hotel Riley, at Sedalia, died Wednesday afternoon, from injuries received by being thrown from his buggy on Sunday.

The Lexington Intelligencer prints columns of fresh local news each week that any "other Lexington publication," the Herald not entering into consideration.

Tin Howard, the chief editor of Myrick, here was Monday, still under the impression that the 4th of July was, next to St. Patrick's day, the bravest holiday of the year.

It is asserted that if Mayor Russell vetoes the ordinance restraining dogs from running at large, the township and county officials will begin the enforcement of the state law in the latter part of the week.

With professionals barred, there ought to be plenty of fun at the first annual tournament of the Missouri State Amateur Shooting association, to be held here August 12, 13 and 14.

Judge John E. Ryland celebrated his 61st birthday anniversary Wednesday. The INTELLIGENCER hopes to congratulate the affable judge on the same day thirty or forty years hence.

Mose Griffith pleaded guilty to gambling before Justice Hagland, at Higginsville, Monday, and was fined $1 and costs, a total of $20.30. Deputy Sheriff Kirk placed him in the county jail.

Jack Cullen, who broke into the residence of Harvey Higgins, at Higginsville, Monday night, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Jackson the next day and taken to the county jail Wednesday morning.

The state tournament gives promise of being one of the most successful shooting meetings ever held by amateurs in the state. Secretary Sturges is kept quite busy at times attending to the correspondence.

The machine shops have been busy repairing threshers outfits. As many as four portable engines were undergoing repairs at one time. There will be a busy time among threshers for some days to come.

A couple of Wellington fellows, under the influence of liquor, and the proprietor of a billiard hall here, continued to quarrel, when the billiard man slapped one of the Wellingtonians. Recorder Nield fined each $3 Monday.

Andy Blagg, the slayer of Samuel Reeves, was given a preliminary hearing at Sedalia Tuesday, and held to the grand jury with-out bail, on a charge of murder in the first degree. He had no attorney and made no defense.

McKee Bros. in the Mong building, had a good deal to say in last week's paper about special low prices, and are having little time to say anything at all this week, so have been "hanging 'em out" for their many customers.

The INTELLIGENCER press has turned out a circular inviting all ex-confederates in the county to attend a meeting to be held here Monday, August 11, at 11 a. m., to take steps for the formation of an Ex-Confederate Association of Lafayette County.

Some one stole a few pounds of butter which Grocer Rogers had packed in a box, and took it to the store Tuesday night. There is no account of the theft of a loaf of bread nor pan of biscuits, and the wonder is, what could the thief have wanted with the butter.

Miss Harriette Jewell, a teacher at the Baptist Female College, brought suit for unpaid wages against Rev. G. W. Hyde, former business manager of the college, in Justice Price's court Wednesday, the jury returning a verdict in her favor for $80. Miss Jewell sued for $85.

A negro named Hub Clark, was brought to the county jail Tuesday morning, charged with the larceny of some property from a residence at Higginsville. Deputy Sheriff Jackson chased him to the hills around Dover, and arrested him in a cabin Monday night. He led the officer a merry canter.

Miss Anna Thomas, of near Mount Leonard, gave a party Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Beatie Cobb, of Lexington. Miss May Montgomery, of Sedalia, and Miss Hattie Boyer, of this city, there were a number of young ladies and gentlemen in attendance from this city.

Marshall Demore, a New York newspaper editor, referred to slightly in these columns. It is hereby asserted that when the INTELLIGENCER speaks of "two other Lexington publications," the Westworth Bugle and its equally extensively circulated contemporary, and the "organ," are meant, and not the Herald.

Bill Ligon and a painter named Lickett, charged with gambling, were to have been tried before Justice Bryant, at Higginsville, Monday, but Ligon jumped his bond and the painter managed to escape from Constable George Evans. The two were arrested when the gambling house was raided also forfeited their bonds.

The private road leading from Dr. Ridge's farm to Higginsville, two miles in length, is said to be in a terrible condition, and caused quite a number of accidents Saturday day. Dr. Carter was thrown from his vehicle and quite seriously hurt, and five vehicles were so badly damaged from accidents and runaways that they were abandoned on the road.

Jack Cullen, the fellow who was arrested for breaking into Harvey Higgins' house, at Higginsville, says he was not there to steal, but that he wanted to meet his sweetheart. The girl formerly worked for Mr. Higgins, but left some time ago, and Cullen claims that he did not know this. The girl he found there was the same one who had been found there the day before last. Friday, Register had the alarm and caused his capture.

David Register, a large and stout man, and Henry Puckett, much his inferior physically, had a fight at Edwards, Dover township, last Friday. Register had Puckett down, and was beating him with his fist in true Kilrain style, when the small one drew his knife and plunged its blade eight times into Register's body. The blade was serious, but none of the wounds were serious, but they had the desired effect. Puckett was arrested by Constable Thorne, and was taken to the Edwards depot the next morning, not much the worse for his wounds.

Wednesday was clear but cool. The ozone came in just in time.

Inside facts—What you are reading.

Best calves, 5c at Royle & Son. 7-1112

See notice of trustee's sale in this issue.

See notices worth 10c for 5c at Royle & Son's.

See island cotton at 5c; you pay we check.

where. Royle & Son. 7-1111

The most important bridge to any man is that of his own nose.

Colored mohairs at Royle & Son's worth 6c are being offered at 35c.

Summer dress goods away off the price. See them at Royle & Son's.

7-1112 If you want to get two dollars worth of goods for one round dollar go to Royle & Son.

7-1112 The INTELLIGENCER last Saturday was read and white; but it wasn't blue by any means.

No fooling. No big sounding words, but stern facts, we offer you in a way of bargains. Royle & Son. 7-1112

A nice assortment of trimmed bonnets and hats. This season's goods at special prices, call on Mrs. S. P. Arnold. 7-1112

We would suggest to the Herald that it either procure a better class of "facilities," or get out of the flag making business at once.

Tuesday was about as rainy a day as we've had this summer, and there was a bit of a cold wave accompanying the rain.

Postmaster Gaston, of Odessa, has had his salary increased $100 a year by the adjustment of salaries of third-class postmasters.

The city collections were quite light in June, but the trial continued until the 18th, in Justice Hagland's court, at Higginsville.

A Ray county thresherman was here Monday with his outfit, having some of the best threshing machines in the county, and a large number of men.

The attention of Mayor Russell has been called to the filthy condition of certain streets and alleys in the Third ward, and Marshal Hamlet will be sent out to look after them.

The council will meet in regular session Monday night, and of course the only correct report of the proceedings will be printed when the INTELLIGENCER of that week goes to press.

The workman who has been cleaning the dirt from between the rails of the street car track threw it on the macadam, and the rain coming, made anything but a pleasant condition of affairs.

Collector Hamlet informed an INTELLIGENCER reporter Wednesday that he expected to have all the merchants' licenses collected by the 15th of July.

What is the difference between a railroad car chaperone and a woman who offers a tramp a dinner? Give it up! Then listen: One feeds the tramp, the other feeds the law. County papers please copy.

A private letter from Kansas City says that Tuesday during the storm a current of electricity passed along the electric wire and extinguished the lights and badly shocked Ed Phillips who was standing near the lamp.

Mayor Russell has vetoed the "goose" ordinance, giving as his reason thereof that the law could not be enforced. The message accompanying the vetoed ordinance is very short, and was given to City Clerk Moreland Thursday.

Washington Cooper, of the Dover neighborhood, was a caller Wednesday. He says a large part of the wheat crop in his section will not be harvested, and that the net yield will not be near so large as at one time.

The first thing the average citizen does when he hears an alarm of fire is to run to the engine house, and if he arrives before the apparatus goes, stand and watch the boys get started. He then thinks of the engine and wonders where it is.

Col. M. V. L. McClelland was in to see the business manager Wednesday. He reports that some of his neighbors are already threshing wheat, and that in his section the wheat is nearly all harvested.

Miss Ida Schaefermeyer entertained a few of her friends, in honor of her cousin, who was in the city on Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock, dancing and games were the amusement of the evening. A very pleasant party was had.

Up to 10 o'clock Thursday afternoon, ten saloons, eight butchers, two billiard halls, eighteen wagon shops, three livery stables, four hotels, seventy-three merchants and one restaurant, were closed by the city. Only a few had not paid at that time.

John Wesley and George Combs, both colored citizens, disputed about a bid for some work on the city hall. The matter was brought to the attention of Recorder Neet Tuesday forenoon, who fined Wesley $1 and costs, amounting to $10.50, for disturbing the peace. He paid up.

Maj. George P. Gordon, of near Corder, paid the INTELLIGENCER a pleasant call Wednesday. Major Gordon says a large number of ex-confederates will be present on the 24th of August to participate in the organization. Major Gordon commands a battalion in the famous Shelby's Brigade as brave a body of men as ever rode a horse.

Mayor Russell took a couple of members of the county court a turn around the court house square Thursday forenoon, and pointed out where a trust had been made by the county jail and a good deed could do deadly execution among the weeds that grow along the fences and walks surrounding the county's premises.

Capt. J. A. Wilson, who is an enthusiastic collector of war relics, this week took from a wall in the building on Main and Broadway crowsing, a one pound grape shot, which he had laid out for the sale of the battle of Lexington, nearly thirty years ago. The shot was evidently fired from one of Mulligan's batteries during the siege.

Smith Clark had a warrant issued Saturday afternoon, in Justice Wallace's court, for the arrest of Gottlieb Shieber, wife and son, Rudolf, for a felonious assault upon Rudolf's wife, Clark's sister, the day before. The parties, who reside six or seven miles south of town, were arrested and gave bond for their appearance for trial on the 10th. Bail was fixed at $100 each.

Benjamin Franklin Adams, colored, was brought here from Myrtle, Iowa, Sunday, on a regulation, and locked up in the Lexington jail, to answer to a charge of larceny and larceny. A preliminary examination will be held Monday, in Justice Wallace's court. Adams is one of a gang charged with breaking open and robbing loaded merchandise cars at the Missouri Pacific depot, and was run down by Detective Frank Tutt. The officers hope to get the other members of the gang.

The Fisher brothers, two in number, who reside in Ohio, near Wheeling, W. Va., arrived at Lexington with a steam threshing outfit Monday night, and on Tuesday moved to the Dr. Adams neighborhood, east of town, where they have several weeks' work. Rev. J. J. Davis, of this vicinity, is interested with them, and he, with Rev. Phetzing, who knew the boys in Ohio, had much to do with their coming. "In our country," said one of them to an INTELLIGENCER reporter, "we have acres and acres of stone land, but we raise pretty fair crops by hard work. It seems to me you have indeed a garden spot, where cultivation seems to be an easy matter."

The 4th has passed.

Cool and cloudy yesterday.

No more holidays until —

But calves, 5c at Royle & Son. 7-1112

See notice of trustee's sale in this issue.

See notices worth 10c for 5c at Royle & Son's.

See island cotton at 5c; you pay we check.

where. Royle & Son. 7-1111

The most important bridge to any man is that of his own nose.

Colored mohairs at Royle & Son's worth 6c are being offered at 35c.

Summer dress goods away off the price. See them at Royle & Son's.

7-1112 If you want to get two dollars worth of goods for one round dollar go to Royle & Son.

7-1112 The INTELLIGENCER last Saturday was read and white; but it wasn't blue by any means.

No fooling. No big sounding words, but stern facts, we offer you in a way of bargains. Royle & Son. 7-1112

A nice assortment of trimmed bonnets and hats. This season's goods at special prices, call on Mrs. S. P. Arnold. 7-1112

We would suggest to the Herald that it either procure a better class of "facilities," or get out of the flag making business at once.

Tuesday was about as rainy a day as we've had this summer, and there was a bit of a cold wave accompanying the rain.

Postmaster Gaston, of Odessa, has had his salary increased $100 a year by the adjustment of salaries of third-class postmasters.

The city collections were quite light in June, but the trial continued until the 18th, in Justice Hagland's court, at Higginsville.

A Ray county thresherman was here Monday with his outfit, having some of the best threshing machines in the county, and a large number of men.

The attention of Mayor Russell has been called to the filthy condition of certain streets and alleys in the Third ward, and Marshal Hamlet will be sent out to look after them.

The council will meet in regular session Monday night, and of course the only correct report of the proceedings will be printed when the INTELLIGENCER of that week goes to press.

The workman who has been cleaning the dirt from between the rails of the street car track threw it on the macadam, and the rain coming, made anything but a pleasant condition of affairs.

Collector Hamlet informed an INTELLIGENCER reporter Wednesday that he expected to have all the merchants' licenses collected by the 15th of July.

What is the difference between a railroad car chaperone and a woman who offers a tramp a dinner? Give it up! Then listen: One feeds the tramp, the other feeds the law. County papers please copy.

A private letter from Kansas City says that Tuesday during the storm a current of electricity passed along the electric wire and extinguished the lights and badly shocked Ed Phillips who was standing near the lamp.

Mayor Russell has vetoed the "goose" ordinance, giving as his reason thereof that the law could not be enforced. The message accompanying the vetoed ordinance is very short, and was given to City Clerk Moreland Thursday.

Washington Cooper, of the Dover neighborhood, was a caller Wednesday. He says a large part of the wheat crop in his section will not be harvested, and that the net yield will not be near so large as at one time.

The first thing the average citizen does when he hears an alarm of fire is to run to the engine house, and if he arrives before the apparatus goes, stand and watch the boys get started. He then thinks of the engine and wonders where it is.

Col. M. V. L. McClelland was in to see the business manager Wednesday. He reports that some of his neighbors are already threshing wheat, and that in his section the wheat is nearly all harvested.

Miss Ida Schaefermeyer entertained a few of her friends, in honor of her cousin, who was in the city on Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served at 10:30 o'clock, dancing and games were the amusement of the evening. A very pleasant party was had.

Up to 10 o'clock Thursday afternoon, ten saloons, eight butchers, two billiard halls, eighteen wagon shops, three livery stables, four hotels, seventy-three merchants and one restaurant, were closed by the city. Only a few had not paid at that time.

John Wesley and George Combs, both colored citizens, disputed about a bid for some work on the city hall. The matter was brought to the attention of Recorder Neet Tuesday forenoon, who fined Wesley $1 and costs, amounting to $10.50, for disturbing the peace. He paid up.

Maj. George P. Gordon, of near Corder, paid the INTELLIGENCER a pleasant call Wednesday. Major Gordon says a large number of ex-confederates will be present on the 24th of August to participate in the organization. Major Gordon commands a battalion in the famous Shelby's Brigade as brave a body of men as ever rode a horse.

Mayor Russell took a couple of members of the county court a turn around the court house square Thursday forenoon, and pointed out where a trust had been made by the county jail and a good deed could do deadly execution among the weeds that grow along the fences and walks surrounding the county's premises.

Capt. J. A. Wilson, who is an enthusiastic collector of war relics, this week took from a wall in the building on Main and Broadway crowsing, a one pound grape shot, which he had laid out for the sale of the battle of Lexington, nearly thirty years ago. The shot was evidently fired from one of Mulligan's batteries during the siege.

Smith Clark had a warrant issued Saturday afternoon, in Justice Wallace's court, for the arrest of Gottlieb Shieber, wife and son, Rudolf, for a felonious assault upon Rudolf's wife, Clark's sister, the day before. The parties, who reside six or seven miles south of town, were arrested and gave bond for their appearance for trial on the 10th. Bail was fixed at $100 each.

Benjamin Franklin Adams, colored, was brought here from Myrtle, Iowa, Sunday, on a regulation, and locked up in the Lexington jail, to answer to a charge of larceny and larceny. A preliminary examination will be held Monday, in Justice Wallace's court. Adams is one of a gang charged with breaking open and robbing loaded merchandise cars at the Missouri Pacific depot, and was run down by Detective Frank Tutt. The officers hope to get the other members of the gang.

The Fisher brothers, two in number, who reside in Ohio, near Wheeling, W. Va., arrived at Lexington with a steam threshing outfit Monday night, and on Tuesday moved to the Dr. Adams neighborhood, east of town, where they have several weeks' work. Rev. J. J. Davis, of this vicinity, is interested with them, and he, with Rev. Phetzing, who knew the boys in Ohio, had much to do with their coming. "In our country," said one of them to an INTELLIGENCER reporter, "we have acres and acres of stone land, but we raise pretty fair crops by hard work. It seems to me you have indeed a garden spot, where cultivation seems to be an easy matter."

RIVER NOTES.

The river was falling Sunday.

The river rose three or four inches Monday night.

The government gauge showed 267.0 feet at noon Wednesday.

Mountaineers are spending themselves on the opposite side of the river.

The river was 19.2 feet at Kansas City Monday afternoon, and falling.

The ferryboat has been landing below the old ponton bridge gate for some time.

The river fell several inches Thursday night, and was still falling yesterday afternoon.

The steamer Mason passed down Monday afternoon, sending a few passengers ashore at this point in a boat.

Mr. Clark, who lives on the Hicklin farm, two miles below town, lost nearly all his growing crop by the flood.

The river rose a few inches Tuesday night, and at noon Wednesday was within a foot of the highest point reached this year.

The ferryboat, Roy Lynds, went a flat-bottom up, upon which the Johnson family had stowed their household stuff during the high water.

In some places slices of the Ray county bank one hundred feet wide have slipped into the river. The ferryboat found some difficulty in making a landing place Wednesday forenoon.

The steamer Alford arrived yesterday afternoon from St. Joseph. The Alford was the first steamer to pass through Dant's point, since the flood.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one. The Alford was a fine vessel, and the crew was a good one.

County Court.

The court met at 9 o'clock Monday morning, Judges Smith, Ebling and Andrews present.

Drumshop licenses were granted to the following: Fritz Langkrah, Carter, and to Langkrah & Moore, Higginsville; E. A. Blakey, Fritz Baldwin, J. W. Johnson, Jude & Limberg, E. Hoffman, John T. Cramer, Melton & Galt, John E. Hill, Frank Hender, Henry A. Galt, Christian Meyer, S. Silverman, E. R. Healy, Charles H. Geyer & Co., Pat. Fagan, J. P. Owens, John Bach, and John G. Mohl.

It was ordered that the contract made by R. D. Weedin with the St. Louis Bridge and Iron company, for a bridge over the Big Bluff, on the Wellington and Greenon roads, be approved and confirmed. This is known as the McClelland bridge.

R. D. Weedin was ordered to build a bridge on Tanager Branch, south of Wellington, on the Wellington and Greenon roads, and bridge near Pete Pulkerson, in John Nield's road district.

The personal property taxes of W. R. McFarland, for 1890, were stated. No property in the county at time of the assessment.

Court adjourned until Tuesday.

SECOND DAY.

The school report of Christian F. Ginn, ordered satisfied.

Commissioner R. D. Weedin makes report of road below Weedin laid out where the bank of the river fell in; report approved, and $150 damages awarded Chas. Walton. About 100 feet of the road went to the river.

It was ordered that William Price, adjudged insane by a jury in the criminal court, be sent to the lunatic asylum at St. Joseph, to be kept there six months, to be returned to the county at the expiration of that time.

Abatement of double assessment of taxes taken to that institution by the sheriff, Kirby, consisted of petty larceny of the recent special term of the criminal court, to the reform school at Booneville yesterday.

A lot of crops decorated the door of the county clerk's office, in memory of the late R. B. Steele, who was so long the chief officer here.

County Attorney Ault was at Higginsville Monday, and went from there to Odessa, Tuesday, to conduct the preliminary examination of Andy Blagg.

Daye Hammett has finished a typesetter transcript of more than three hundred pages, and has stopped awhile, to let the ends of his fingers grow again, to get ready to set more.

Deputy Sheriff Hays took Deputy Sheriff Kirby, convicted of petty larceny of the recent special term of the criminal court, to the reform school at Booneville yesterday.

W. Scott Thomas, constable at Waverly, telegraphed to Sheriff Mitchell Tuesday that he had the man under arrest who had the stabbing at Edwards, and asked what should be done with him. Deputy Sheriff Hays, who was in charge of the office, replied to admit the man to jail or keep him in custody until he could be arraigned.